

NIKE

STOP SPONSORING TURKISH FASCISM

UK Kurdish organisations, and the supporters of the Rojava revolution are calling for Nike to drop their sponsorship of Turkish sports teams. We are also asking consumers to boycott Nike until they drop their sponsorship.

Nike sponsors the Turkish national football team who have been making grotesque military salutes at their international matches in support of the Turkish invasion of Rojava, Northeast Syria. Nike also sponsors several other Turkish sports teams and personal-

Turkish-led forces invaded Rojava on 9 October. Since then Turkey has committed ethnic cleansing and war crimes. The invasion has so far killed over 300 civilians, created around 350,000 displaced people, and allowed hundreds of Daesh (Isis/Isil) supporters to escape detention.

Turkey has systematically attacked medical staff, who are trying to care for the wounded as well as attacking water facilities, to deny people even water to drink.

Turkey's attack is intended to crush the progressive pluralist revolution going on in Rojava. A revolution that is based on the principles of direct democracy, womens' freedom and ecology.

BOYCOTT TURKEY

STOP SPONSORING TURKISH FASCISM

UK Kurdish organisations, and the supporters of the Rojava revolution are calling for Nike to drop their sponsorship of Turkish sports teams. We are also asking consumers to boycott Nike until they drop their sponsorship.

Nike sponsors the Turkish national football team who have been making grotesque military salutes at their international matches in support of the Turkish invasion of Rojava, Northeast Syria. Nike also sponsors several other Turkish sports teams and personal-

Turkish-led forces invaded Rojava on 9 October. Since then Turkey has committed ethnic cleansing and war crimes. The invasion has so far killed over 300 civilians, created around 350,000 displaced people, and allowed hundreds of Daesh (Isis/Isil) supporters to escape detention.

Turkey has systematically attacked medical staff, who are trying to care for the wounded as well as attacking water facilities, to deny people even water to drink.

Turkey's attack is intended to crush the progressive pluralist revolution going on in Rojava. A revolution that is based on the principles of direct democracy, womens' freedom and ecology.

BOYCOTT TURKEY

